Bansi Shah

Treasury facing IT

Expert areas: Treasury, Business Strategy, Functional Strategy, Operational Strategy, Systems

Summary

A member of the Association of Corporate Treasurers, Bansi is a consummate finance professional with over 24 years' experience within the financial services sector.

Working closely with the executive board sponsors, Bansi has undertaken significant assignments in developing, re-engineering and delivering high quality architectural roadmaps, target functional & operating models, seeing them through to implementation within Tier 1 banks (Merrill Lynch, the Bank of England, HSBC, ABN Amro, Microbank, Cazenove), Asset and Fund Managers (Nordex, Morse), Corporate (British Petroleum, Fuitsu Finance) as well as Sovereign clients.

His skill and ability to view the enterprise models from a macro perspective down to the detail at the micro level has enabled him to generate substantial efficiencies, define and create new business opportunities providing his clients significant first provider market lead.

His most recent assignment was a Greenfield opportunity to define and architect a new global business proposition for Bloomberg to address the financial services sector.
